Mon 10/26/2015 3:15 PM

Dear Colleagues:

The "Underinsured" work queue is working again. Thank you for your patience while this report was being fixed.

You may now preview 2016 plans and prices on the Healthcare.gov website. The Health Insurance Marketplace opens up November 1, 2015. The "Underinsured" letters have gone out to those clients. The letter was mailed Friday 10/23/15, so clients should receive them by Tuesday 10/27/15. Therefore, you may be receiving calls from families soon. Families may report insurance we do not have on the system, or may ask for help with enrollment through the Marketplace process.

Some important dates to keep in mind:

- November 1, 2015: Open Enrollment starts - first day to enroll in or change plans for coverage in a 2016 insurance plan through the Health Insurance Marketplace for a January 1, 2016, effective date.
- December 15, 2015: Last day to enroll in or change plans for a January 1, 2016, effective date.
- January 15, 2016: Last day to enroll in or change plans for a February 1, 2016, effective date.
- January 31, 2016: 2016 Open Enrollment ends.
